

Brookshire Scholarship

2021 Scholarship Award Guidelines

The Brookshire Scholarship Award is given by the Brookshire family in honor of Bill and Myrtle Brookshire. Mrs. Brookshire was a Home Economics teacher at Johnson County High School for many years. Mrs. Brookshire's love for her students and her passion for the subject that she knew would increase the quality of their lives never wavered. Mr. Brookshire, one of the founders of Johnson County Bank in 1975, served as bank president and also on the JCB Board of Directors. He enjoyed supporting various community projects such as the 4-H Poultry Project, Little League Baseball, Heritage Hall, the Johnson County Center for the Arts and the Johnson County Senior Heating Assistance program. The impact of these two good, kind and community-oriented people has been felt in our community for many years. Through this scholarship opportunity, their legacy will continue to support and enrich the lives of those in our community.

Students who are graduates of Johnson County High School that plan to pursue a degree related to the field of Family and Consumer Sciences or Business, and who have shown dedication, passion and aptitude for the field are eligible to apply for this award.

Program Guidelines & Priorities:
